

I've Got A Date
WITH Another Man's Wife.

SONG

BY
Beulah Robinson

Published by
Beulah Robinson
39 DETROIT AVENUE, PITTSFIELD, MAINE.

I've Got A Date With Another Man's Wife

FOX - TROT

By BEULAH ROBINSON.

Intro Mod^{to}

ff

I used to love the dear old moon, And thought 'twas simply One night not ver - y long a - go, I went to keep a great, date. To sit up - on the old rail fence, And I know that she would be on time, I for my sweet - ie wait, But times have changed since then. . . . And had - n't long to wait, The clouds be - gan to gath - er. The

as the car we park; We hope and pray with wind be - gan to blow; We did - n't mind the all our hearts, That it will be good and dark.

rain at all, For the moon stayed in you know.

Chor.

I've got a date with an - oth - er man's wife, He's leading her a life of strife, So Mis - ter Moon, Don't come out too soon For...

we're both lone - ly and we want to spoon; And if you're out, then.... folks can see, And our date will a night - mare be; So please stay in and save my life,.... For

I've got a date with an - oth - er man's wife.